WHO OWNS YOUR BIRTH CERTIFICATE

Mood: incredulous

THE BIRTH CERTIFICATE by: Yumnah El from "Cracking The Code" book... Since the early 1960s, State governments -- themselves specially created, juristic, corporate persons signified by all-caps names -- have issued birth certificates to "persons" with all caps names. This is not a lawful record of your physical birth, but rather the birth of the juristic, all-caps name. It may appear to be your true name, but since no proper name is ever written in all caps (either lawfully or grammatically) it does not identify who you are. The birth certificate is the governments self-created document of title for its new "property", i.e., the deed to the juristic-name artificial person whose all-caps name "mirrors" your true name. The birth certificate brings the new all-capital letters vessel into colorable admiralty/maritime law, the same way a ship is berthed. One important area to address, before going any further, is the governmental use of older data storage from the late 1950s until the early 1980s. As a "leftover" from various teletype-oriented systems, many government data storage methods used all caps for proper names. The IRS was supposedly still complaining about some of their antiquated storage systems as recent as the early 1980s. At first, this may have been a necessity of the technology at the time, not a deliberate act. Perhaps, when this technology was first being used and implemented into the mainstream of communications, some legal experts saw it as a perfect tool for their perfidious intentions. What better excuse could there be? However, since local, State and Federal offices primarily used typewriters during that same time period, and birth certificates and other important documents, such as drivers licenses, were produced with typewriters, its very doubtful that this poses much of an excuse to explain all caps usage for proper names. The only reasonable usage of the older databank all-caps storage systems would have been for addressing envelopes or certain forms in bulk, including payment checks, which the governments did frequently. Automated computer systems, with daisy-wheel and pin printers used prevalently in the early 1980s, emulated the IBM electric typewriter Courier or Helvetica fonts in both upper and lower cases letters. Shortly thereafter, the introduction of laser and in-jet printers with multiple fonts became the standard. Re the past fifteen years, there can be no excuse that government computers will not accommodate the use of lower case letters unless the older data is still stored in its original form, i.e., all caps, and has not been translated due to the costs of re-entry. But this does not excuse the entry of new data, only "legacy" data. In fact, on many government forms today, proper names are in all caps while other areas of the same computer-produced document are in both upper and lower case. One can only conclude that now, more than ever, the use of all caps in substitution for the writing of a proper name is no mistake. When a baby is born, the hospital sends the original, not a copy, of the record of live birth to the State Bureau of Vital Statistics, sometimes called the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services (HRS). Each STATE is required to supply the UNITED STATES with birth, death, and health statistics. The STATE agency that receives the original record of live birth keeps it and then issues a birth certificate in the corrupted, all -caps version of the child's true name, e.g., JAMES WILBUR SMITH. "cer-tif-i-cate, noun. Middle English certificat, from Middle French, from Medieval Latin ceruificatum. from Late Latin, neuter of certificatus, past participle of certificare, to certify, 15th century. 3: a document evidencing ownership or debt". [Underline emphasis added] Merriam Webster Dictionary, 1998". The Birth certificate issued by the State is then registered with the U.S. Department of Commerce - the Executive Office - specially through their own sub-agency, the U. W. Census Bureau, which is responsible to register vital statistics from all the States. The word registered, as it is used within commercial or legal based equity law, does not mean that the all-caps name was merely noted in a book for reference purposes. When a birth certificate is registered with the U. S. Department of Commerce it means that the all-caps -legal person named thereon has become a surety or guarantor, a condition and obligation that is automatically and unwittingly assumed unless the presumption is effectively rebutted, i.e., notice to the effect of: "It ain't me". Security, Bond. -- Security. 1 a: Something (as a mortgage or collateral) that is provided to make certain the fulfillment of an obligation. Example: used his property as security for a loan. 1b: "surety" 2: Evidence of indebtedness, ownership, or the right to ownership. - Ibid. Bond. a: A usually formal written agreement by which a person undertakes to perform a certain act (as fulfill the obligations of a contract)..with the condition that failure to perform or abstain will obligate the person ...to pay a sum of money or will result in the forfeiture of money put up by the person or surety. 1b: One who acts as a surety. 2: An interest-bearing document giving evidence of a debt issued by a government body or corporation that is sometimes secured by a lien on property and is often designed to take care of a particular financial need. Ibid" Merriam-Webster-Dictionary of Law, 1996. "Surety. The person who has pledged him or herself to pay back money or perform a certain action if the principal to a contract fails, as collateral, and as part of the original contract". Duhaime's Law Dictionary "1: a formal engagement (as a pledge) given for the fulfillment of an undertaking. 2: one who promises to answer for the debt or default of another. Under the Uniform Commercial Code, however, a surety includes a guarantor, and the two terms are generally interchangeable. Merriam Webster's Dictionary of Law, 1996 "Guarantor. A person who pledges collateral for the contract of another, but separately, as part of an independent contract with the obligee of the original contract". Duhaime's Law Dictionary It is not difficult to see that a state-created birth certificate with an all-caps name is a document evidencing debt the moment it is issued. Once a state has registered a birth document with the U. S. Department of Commerce, the Department notifies the Treasury Department, who takes our a loan from the Federal Reserve. The Treasury uses the loan to purchase a bond (the Fed holds a "purchase money security interest in the bond) from the Department of Commerce, who invests the sale proceeds in the stock or bond market. The Treasury Department then issues Treasury securities in the form of Treasury Bonds, Notes, and Bills using the bonds as surety for the new "securities". This cycle is based on the future tax revenues of the legal person whose name appears on the birth certificate. This also means that the bankrupt, corporate U.S. can guarantee to the purchasers of their securities the lifetime labor and tax revenue of every "citizen of the United States"/American with a birth certificate as collateral for payment. This device is initiated simply by converting the lawful, true name of the newborn into a legal, juristic name of a person. Legally, you are considered a slave or indentured servant to the various federal, state and local governments via your STATE-issued, STATE-created birth certificate in the name of your all-caps person. Birth certificates are issued so that the issuer can claim "exclusive" title to the legal person created thereby. This is further compounded when one voluntarily obtains a driver's license or a Social Security Account Number. The state even owns your personal and private life through your STATE-issued marriage license/certificate issued in the all-caps names. You have no rights in birth, marriage, or even death. The state holds title to all legal persons the state creates via birth certificates until the rightful owner, the holder in due course of the instrument, i.e., you, reclaims/redeems it. The main problem is that mothers/parents and then the 18 year-old man/woman have voluntarily agreed to this contrived system of plunder by remaining silent; comprising legal default, laches, and failing to assert our absolute rights. The maxim of law becomes crucially operative: "He who fails to assert his rights has none". The legal rules and codes enforce themselves. There is no court hearing to determine if those rules are correct. Their "law" is self regulating and self-supporting. Once set into motion, their "laws" automatically come into effect provided the legal process has been followed. A result of the federal bankruptcy was the creation of the "UNITED STATES", which was made a part of the legal reorganization. The name of each STATE was also converted to its respective, all-caps legal persons, such as corporations, with all-capital letters names, as well. Once this was accomplished, the con really began to pick up speed. All areas of government and all alleged "courts of law", are de facto, "color of law and right" institutions. The "CIRCUIT COURT OF WAYNE COUNTY" and the "U.S. DISTRICT COURT" can only recognize and deal with other legal persons. This is why your lawful name is never entered in their records. The all-caps legal person is used instead. Jurisdiction in such sham courts covers only other artificial persons. The proper jurisdiction for a lawful being is a Constitutionally sanctioned, common-law-venue court. Unfortunately, such jurisdiction was "shelved" in 1938 and is no longer available; the only courts today are statutory courts.

By: David Deschesne Advanced Civics Research Library Right: Some birth and marriage certificates are now "warehouse receipts," printed on banknote paper, which may mark you and yours as 'chattel' property of the banks that our government borrows from every day. A certificate is a "paper establishing an ownership claim." - Barron's Dictionary of Banking Terms. Registration of births began in 1915, by the Bureau of Census, with all states adopting the practice by 1933. Birth and marriage certificates are a form of securities called "warehouse receipts." The items included on a warehouse receipt, as described at ??-202 of the Uniform Commercial Code, the law which governs commercial paper and transactions, which parallel a birth or marriage certificate are: -the location of the warehouse where the goods are stored...(residence) -the date of issue of the receipt....("Date issued") -the consecutive number of the receipt...(found on back or front of the certificate, usually in red numbers) -a description of the goods or of the packages containing them...(name, sex, date of birth, etc.) -the signature of the warehouseman, which may be made by his authorized agent...(municipal clerk or state registrar's signature) Birth/marriage certificates now appear to at least qualify as "warehouse receipts" under the Uniform Commercial Code. Black's Law Dictionary, 7th ed. defines: warehouse receipt. "...A warehouse receipt, which is considered a document of title, may be a negotiable instrument and is often used for financing with inventory as security." Since the U.S. went bankrupt in 1933, all new money has to be borrowed into existence. All states started issuing serial-numbered, certificated "warehouse receipts" for births and marriages in order to pledge us as collateral against those loans and municipal bonds taken out with the Federal Reserve's banks. The "Full faith and Credit" of the American people is said to be that which back the nation's debt. That simply means the American people's ability to labor and pay back that debt. In order to catalog its laborers, the government needed an efficient, methodical system of tracking its property to that end. Humans today are looked upon merely as resources - "human resources," that is. Governmental assignment of a dollar value to the heads of citizens began on July 14, 1862 when President Lincoln offered 6 percent interest bearing-bonds to states who freed their slaves on a "per head" basis. This practice of valuating humans (cattle?) continues today with our current system of debt-based currency reliant upon a steady stream of fresh new chattels to back it. <http://www.wealth4freedom.com/> <http://www.jhdassociates.com/>

Some of you are Freedom Fighters, I know you, I will always know you, and ...I LOVE you. Thank you my loves....River Billy Bragg: The Lonesome death of Rachel Corrie - New song - Audio The Lonesome death of Rachel Corrie

Exclusive download (MP3): The Lonesome Death of Rachel Corrie

Billy Bragg
Tuesday March 28, 2006
The Guardian

Rachel Corrie went to Gaza to draw attention to the plight of the Palestinians, whose voice is seldom heard in her country, the US. That she herself should be silenced - first by an Israeli bulldozer, next by a New York theatre cancelling a play created from her words - is a testimony to the power of her message. This song was written on a plane on March 20 and recorded at Big Sky Recordings, Ann Arbor, Michigan on March 22. The tune is borrowed from Bob Dylan. An Israeli bulldozer killed poor Rachel Corrie

As she stood in its path in the town of Rafah
She lost her young life in an act of compassion
Trying to protect the poor people of Gaza
Whose homes are destroyed by tank shells and bulldozers
And whose plight is exploited by suicide bombers
Who kill in the name of the people of Gaza
But Rachel Corrie believed in non-violent resistance
Put herself in harm's way as a shield of the people
And paid with her life in a manner most brutal
But you who philosophise disgrace and criticise all fears,
Take the rag away from your face.

Now ain't the time for your tears.

Rachel Corrie had 23 years
 She was born in the town of Olympia, Washington
 A skinny, messy, list-making chain-smoker
 Who volunteered to protect the Palestinian people
 Who had become non-persons in the eyes of the media
 So that people were suffering and no one was seeing
 Or hearing or talking or caring or acting
 And the horrible math of the awful equation
 That brought Rachel Corrie into this confrontation
 Is that the spilt blood of a single American
 Is worth more than the blood of a hundred Palestinians

But you who philosophise disgrace and criticise all fears,
 Take the rag away from your face.
 Now ain't the time for your tears.

The artistic director of a New York theatre
 Cancelled a play based on Rachel's writings
 But she wasn't a bomber or a killer or fighter
 But one who acted in the spirit of the Freedom Riders
 Is there no place for a voice in America
 That doesn't conform to the Fox News agenda?
 Who believes in non-violence instead of brute force
 Who is willing to confront the might of an army
 Whose passionate beliefs were matched by her bravery
 The question she asked rings out round the world
 If America is truly the beacon of freedom
 Then how can it stand by while they bring down the curtain
 And turn Rachel Corrie into a non-person?

Oh, but you who philosophise disgrace and criticise all fears,
 Bury the rag deep in your face
 For now's the time for your tears.

? My Name Is Rachel Corrie, co-edited by Alan Rickman and Guardian features editor Katharine Viner, opens at the Playhouse theatre tonight. Telephone 0870 060 6631. Listen to an exclusive download (MP3) of the song here.

BLUE PILL PEOPLE - WAKE UP!

2/23/06 Did YOU take the Blue Pill???? DID YOU TAKE THE BLUE PILL? Current mood: awake
<http://www.angelfire.com/az/sthurston/RealityZone.html> ENTER: THE ZONE "The Blue Pill People"
 There are none so blind as those who will not look. If you are one of those who will look, take a look around. You are surrounded -- surrounded by millions who will not look. These are the blue pill people.
 Who are these blue pill people and why won't they look? THE CORRUPTIONS OF PATRIOTISM The United States administers a global empire. This used to be a secret. Through the 1990s, our government told us that we stood for democracy, freedom, and independence of nations worldwide (lying to us). But the majority of U.S. citizens refused to critically examine their government out of patriotism. Sheeplike, we acted in defiance of the founding fathers of our nation who distrusted the power of government, who realized that small acts of terrorism (which existed then as now) were nothing compared to the potential for tyranny from those who wield governmental powers. Please wake up my friends!!
